

WELCOME TO MEYERSDALE

Enjoy Our Seasons and Scenery

Tucked in the Casselman River Valley, in the shadow of Mt. Davis (Pennsylvania's highest point), Meyersdale welcomes visitors to share their rich history and small town charm. Bikers and hikers can explore the Great Allegheny Passage, traverse the impressive rail structures, and enjoy the scenic vistas just outside of town. As an emerging Trail Town, visitors are also encouraged to Shop, Dine, and Stay in the Maple City!

Share Our History and Heritage

The Meyersdale area was first occupied by the Monongahela Indians, who captured the sweet water from maple trees to make maple syrup. In celebration of this rich tradition Meyersdale has been home to the Pennsylvania Maple Festival for more than 60 years. Located in Pennsylvania's picturesque Laurel Highlands, Meyersdale also hosts the Somerset County Fair each August.
