

Shared Use Path Materials

For optimum durability a shared use path should be constructed of bituminous paving. The path must also be constructed on stable, compacted soils to achieve maximum structural stability.

Bituminous Paving

Not to Scale