

Beaver County: Community Day involves kayaks, hikes

Posted: Friday, July 15, 2011 12:00 am

The Ohio River Trail Council is hosting a free community day celebration, featuring hiking and kayaking, from 1 to 9 p.m. Sunday at Lock 57 Park in Ohioville.

Venture Outdoors North is also participating in the day's events and will provide some kayaks, although residents are also encouraged to bring their own kayaks and personal flotation devices. The events are described as beginner-friendly.

The schedule also includes a historical presentation featuring the Beaver Canal and the "Point of Beginning," wildflower planting in the new butterfly preserve, and birdwatching for eagles and hawks.