

This map illustrates the proposed trail corridors for the Lewis and Clark expeditions across Eastern Kentucky. The routes are color-coded and labeled as follows:

- Lewis Route: Aug 31 - Oct 14, 1803 (Dark Blue)
- Clark Route: March to July 1, 1808 (Orange)
- Clark Route: Late April - July 9, 1810 (Light Green)
- Chouteau & Osage Delegation Route: Nov 13 - Dec 20, 1806 (Bright Green)
- Lewis Route: July 5 - July 15, 1803 (Purple)
- Chouteau & Osage Delegation Route: Nov 13 - Dec 20, 1806 (Yellow)

The map includes numerous place names and landmarks, such as Lexington, Frankfort, Shelbyville, Graefenburg, Maysville, Limestone Creek, Chillicothe, Zanesville, Marietta, Fort Harmer, Belpre, Fort Boreman Park, Ravenswood, Huntington, Charleston, Clarington, New Matamoras, Wheeling, Steubenville, Point St. Park, Fort LaFayette, Elizabeth, Redstone Old Fort (Brownsville), Uniontown, Pittsburgh, Carnegie Museum of Nat'l Hist., Brunots Island, and Legionville.

A scale bar at the bottom right indicates distances from 0 to 40 miles. A north arrow is also present.

These maps represent the preliminary Eastern Legacy's study corridors for historic travel routes associated with the preparation and return phases of the Lewis and Clark Corps of Discovery Expedition. These routes are preliminary and may be adjusted as the study progresses to reflect more accurate information gained through consultation and further research regarding historic travel paths. As preliminary study routes, there is no guarantee that all routes will meet study criteria for inclusion in the final report.