Although the above-described purchase is what the parties have agreed upon, it is acknowledged that the purchase is subject to change. Ohio River Trail Council purchases typically involve multiple municipalities. At times, the agreed upon purchase requires a modification before finalization. It is not practical for the Ohio River Trail Council to obtain permission from each municipality involved to modify the existing purchase agreement in the case of minor modifications. In the event that a significant modification is required, the Ohio River Trail Council will take the necessary steps to obtain permission from each municipality involved in the agreement.

By signing this document, it is understood that the Ohio River Trail Council may make modifications to the aforesaid purchase in the event that obtaining permission is not practical in the necessary time frame of the purchase.
